

5 East Avenue, Camperdown, Kingston 8

November 18, 2013

Dear colleagues

National Journalism Week begins on Sunday! Make sure you have all the activities in your diaries. See you at church on Sunday at 9 a.m. sharp! Then we go straight from there to brunch on the Waterfront, a fantastic programme is lined up.

Church is at Pentecostal Tabernacle on Wildman Street, so we will do everything Downtown on Sunday.

Remember to confirm your attendance to the Brunch (yes, it is still free), tickets are now available at the office.

The theme this year is “Persevering in the face of Adversity”

Here is the calendar of events please note the dates.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| Sun Nov 24 | Church service -9 a.m.
Pentecostal Tabernacle,
66-72 Wildman Street, Kingston

President’s Brunch 12:00 p.m.
Kingston, Waterfront (TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE, CALL CAUDENE 631-6390) |
| Tues Nov 26 | PAJ/Development Bank of Jamaica (DBJ) Breakfast Forum: - 7:30 a.m.
“The role of the media in facilitating economic development?”
Courtleigh Hotel, New Kingston |
| Wed Nov 27 | Veterans' Luncheon: Honouring, “Heads of News” - 12:30 p.m. |

J. Wray and Nephew Hospitality Room
Spanish Town Road

PAJ/CARIMAC Forum
70 years of modern Journalism in Jamaica
CARIMAC Lecture Room
6 p.m.

Thurs Nov 28 Meet The Press Lyme -6.00 p.m

After work Jam

PAJ Headquarter

5East Ave

Fri Nov 29 National Journalism Award Ceremony – 6.30 pm

Jamaica Pegasus Hotel

Cocktail hour sponsored and planned by Scotiabank – promises to be fabulous!

Speaker: Prof. Errol Morrison
Principal
University of Technology

Theme: “Persevering in the face of Adversity”

Kindest regards,

Jenni Campbell
President